HOUSEHOLD CHEMICALS

Drop off your household chemicals today, tomorrow or any day at any of our convenient drop-off depots.

For your convenience, Waste & Recycling Services, along with the Calgary Fire Department, offers a total of eight year-round chemical drop-off depots. Bring your household chemicals down all year round and we'll recycle or safely dispose of your used motor oil, left-over paint and other household chemicals free of charge* at any of the three City landfills or five designated fire stations with special storage depots. (When you arrive to drop off your household chemicals please speak to the fire station staff on duty so they can properly sort and store your products.)

Please visit our website at www.calgary.ca/waste and follow the links to the "Household Chemical Drop-off Program" page for a complete listing of materials accepted through this program.

Please make sure your household chemicals are sealed appropriately, preferably in their original containers, for the safety of our workers, your family, your neighbourhood and the environment. It is also helpful if everything is clearly labeled.

*Business owners and commercial operators may not use residential chemical collection programs or facilities. If you have waste chemicals at your business, phone (403) 230-6616 between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. or look in the local Yellow pages under "waste disposal - hazardous" for alternate disposal options.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Clothing and household goods for which you have no further use do not need to be discarded. Someone else may get use from them or the materials could be utilized for anything from quilting squares to cleaning rags and pieces of art. Non-functioning appliances can be used as scrap parts for broken appliances. A number of charitable organizations collect such items as old clothes and appliances through drop-off bins and pick-up services (see below).
